

Parents: Note that there is no regular elementary religious education this Wednesday, March 23 or next Wednesday, March 30. Third graders who are preparing for First Communion do have practices however, right after school until 5:00pm on both of those dates.

The next Confirmation class is April 3. This date is not on the original calendar; it is the make-up date for the cancelled December class. There is also class on April 10 and if you missed both the January and March retreat opportunities, there is a retreat on April 9 at Prince of Peace in Green Bay.

Confirmation names are due May 8, so students please use these class-free weeks to decide on the Christian name you would like to use to present yourself to the Bishop.

For all high school students there is a required Reconciliation Service on March 30. Please come at 6:30pm. Following that date, the last session of high school classes begins on April 6. Also, if you have not yet turned in your Theology of the Body for Teens registration, remember that this is due by April 1 even if you are waiting until a future summer to take it.

Grace and peace,

Mindy
