Archbishop Dolan Named Administrator of Diocese of Green Bay

The Archdiocese of Milwaukee announced, September 28, 2007 that Pope Benedict XVI has appointed Most Reverend Timothy Dolan, Archbishop of Milwaukee, as Apostolic Administrator of the Diocese of Green Bay.

Below is an excerpt from the announcement released by the Diocese. The full announcement and a link to Archbishop Dolan's letter to the faithful are available on the Diocese web site, www.gbdioc.org.

Archbishop Dolan, age 57, has been the leader of the Archdiocese since Aug. 28, 2002. Ordained a priest in 1976, he worked as an associate pastor for several years in Missouri, earned a doctorate from Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., served as secretary to the Apostolic Nunciature in Washington, D.C., then as rector of the Pontifical North American College in Rome. On the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood he was named the Auxiliary Bishop of St. Louis.

No one knows for certain when the Holy Father will name the 12th Bishop of Green Bay however, at a gathering with the Diocese staff, Archbishop Dolan mentioned he expects to have the title of Administrator lifted from his name by Easter, 2008. He believes the Catholics in Green Bay will notice little change from the daily program of the Diocese; all major liturgical celebrations such as Confirmations will proceed as planned and all diocesan boards will operate uninterrupted since their bylaws allow for an administrator to lead while the diocese is vacant.

Archbishop Dolan is a very personable and jovial man. His introductions and interactions here at the Diocese were warm, embracing and speckled with the all too familiar Midwestern humor. He has the utmost confidence in the managing staff in Green Bay and expects to have little reason to interfere with the continuing work being done by this Diocese. Unless of course, there's a Christmas Party. Then he'll be first in line for cake and punch.

The Catholic Foundation joyfully welcomes Archbishop Dolan and looks forward to working with him throughout the progression of Advancing the Mission.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

All of us are called to be good stewards of our time, but to different causes or activities according to God's specific call. One way to discern God's call is through prayer and reflection, alone as well as with others.
